PAUL RUSCH FEST. - MT. YATSU COUNTY FAIR

50TH ANNIVERSARY MEMORIAL WORSHIP SERVICE

PURPOSE: The purpose of this memorial worship service is to honor Paul Rusch who devoted his whole life to helping the Japanese people and to show the glory of God who guided and inspired him. It is also an opportunity to express appreciation and thanks to those who supported Dr. Paul Rusch and his great vision. In addition, the service will honor the 40th anniversary of the building of Kiyosato St. Andrew's Church. With the building of St. Andrew's Church, Paul Rusch introduced Christianity to the region "in kimono." In other words, he did not force a new life style on the people, rather he showed them how Christianity could fit into their existing life style. In this Christian spirit, Dr. Rusch worked with the local residents to improve their own lives.

PAUL RUSCH FEST. - MT. YATSU COUNTY FAIR

SYMPOSIUM: "THE INTERNATIONAL RESPONSIBILITY OF JAPAN IN LIGHT OF DR. PAUL RUSCH'S PIONEERING SPIRIT"

PURPOSE: The title, "The International Responsibility of Japan in Light of Dr. Paul Rusch's Pioneering Spirit", is significant for several reasons. First, Dr. Rusch was a pioneer both in his introduction of dairy farming to highlands in Japan and in his method of working within a community and leaving a pattern which can be followed in the future. Second, after the war, he told the poor Japanese that he was assisting, "Once you gain independence, think of what you can do for the poor." One of Dr. Rusch's goals was to assist the poor all over Japan and eventually the poor in other countries. In the past few decades Japan has achieved a state of economic and cultural prosperity. This symposium is organized as a forum for discussion of Japan's future direction in the international community. It is particularly important because of the emphasis Dr. Rusch placed on international cooperation and understanding.

PAUL RUSCH FEST. -MT. YATSU COUNTY FAIR

PIANO FESTIVAL / "THE 9TH SYMPHONY IN THE YATSUGATAKE MOUNTAINS"

PURPOSE: The Piano Festival, one of the main events of the Paul Rusch Festival - Mt. Yatsugatake County Fair, is appropriately held in a highland pasture which remains a lasting symbol of Paul Rusch's pioneering efforts. Dr. Rusch was a leader in opening up former wasteland for food production. In addition to increasing food production, his efforts laid the foundation for the agricultural revolution in post Word War II Japan. Held on a grassland stage, this main memorial event will create an atmosphere which will not only leave a lasting impression but also touch the hearts of those who participate in it and those who watch it. More than anything else, the piano festival symbolizes the coming of a new age on the southern skirts of Mt. Yatsu as it enters into a new half century. This event appropriately represents the cultural seeds which the Mt. Yatsu area possesses. In addition, just as Paul Rusch encouraged gathering, sharing and cooperative efforts when he introduced programs to the Mt. Yatsu area, the theme of the 9th symphony "Joy" also implies this same spirit. Paul Rusch's spirit is communicated as the crowds are embraced with the joy of the 9th Symphony.

DATE: Part I - October 22nd, 1988 (Sat.) 4:00PM - 4:45PM
Part II - October 23rd, 1988 (Sun.) 4:15PM - 5:00PM

DESCRIPTION: A Performance of Beetoven's 9th Symphony featuring a 50 member chorus from the local area accompanied by 50 pianos

SUMMARY: Four or five calves followed by some tractors carrying three generations of local families lead a procession of 50 covered trucks which are carrying the pianos. When the conductor gives the sign, all of the covers will be removed from the trucks, and 50 pianos will be revealed. The orchestra of pianos will start and will be joined by the 50 member chorus for a performance of "The 9th Symphony in the Yatsugatake Mountains. Everyone is invited to sing along with the chorus and enjoy the fireworks display at the climax.*

This event will be performed twice; Part I is a rehearsal. Because this event requires such elaborate cooperation and coordination, just watching the process is an event in itself. On the 23rd , the Piano Festival will mark the end of the festival / fair.

PERFORMERS: Conductor -- Yoshiyuki Kohzu
Pianists (applicants from all over Japan)
Chorus (a local group)

PARTICIPANTS: Volunteers

PREPARATIONS: The pianos will be transported to the KEEP Dairy Farm on a large truck. Subsequently, they will each be transferred to a small two-ton truck. At the appropriate time, the street will be blocked and the procession, lead by the calves and tractors, will proceed to the Memorial Event Field.

PAUL RUSH FEST. - MT. YATSU COUNTY FAIR

CHILDREN'S FESTIVAL - PART I

"PAUL RUSCH'S CHRISTIAN DREAM"

PURPOSE: The purpose of this event is to create " a small bud" which will blossom as the children mature into adults. It is by planting such buds which blossomed into programs for the community that Paul Rusch became known as the "father of Kiyosato." As Paul Rusch's grandchildren, children for the local area, each paint a small part of a large mural of the southern slope of Mt. Yatsu, they will become one. The children will write their names and a message on the section that they have painted. When the mural titled " Paul Rusch's Christian Dream " is sent to Dr. Rusch's birthplace, Kentucky, U.S.A., their messages will be transmitted. There are two main ideas behind this effort: first, to show appreciation to the American people for supporting Paul Rusch and his work; second, to convey Paul Rusch's ideals to the American children who receive the mural.

DATE: October 23, 1988 (Sun.) 10:00AM -12:00PM

PLACE: The Memorial Event Field in front of Seisen-Ryo

DESCRIPTION: On 100 sections of wood, children will each paint a part of a large mural. The background will be the Yatsugatake mountains, and the foreground will be Seisen-Ryo, which symbolizes Paul Rusch's work. 200 local elementary school students will work in pairs on the 100 sections of the mural(15 ft. x 118 ft.). Finally, the children will paint their name and a message to America on the section they have painted. After the children are finished, the sections will be put together to form one large mural. Later the mural will be taken apart and sent to the state of Kentucky where it will be rebuilt.

WOULDN'T YOU LIKE TO JOIN US?

The Paul Rusch Festival - Mt. Yatsugatake County Fair is an event based on the spirit of grass-roots democracy; in other words, it is the work of volunteers. Paul Rusch built Seisen-Ryo Lodge in 1938 as a symbol of youth who take challenges and believe in tomorrow. During the past 50 years Dr. Rusch's ideals have aroused an unchanging spirit of good will in the young people who joined him in the project, the business men who financed it, politicians and nameless others. It is this same spirit of good will which has brought together one million people from all over the world, including Americans, Canadians, and New Zealanders, to form a network of volunteers which centers around Dr. Rusch. In summary, even after half a century the spirit of volunteering has a pulse which is still beating strongly on the southern skirts of Mt. Yatsugatake. Wouldn't you like to join the team of volunteers working to make this event possible?

The fundamental emphasis of the Paul Rusch Festival - Mt. Yatsu County Fair is not on the events themselves but on the process. Paul Rusch willingly sacrificed a lifetime to help the post World War II Japanese who were poor, suffering from illness, and had lost all hope for life. He strongly said, "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you." In addition, Paul left us with the message that when we do something for others we must create a pattern which can be followed in the future. In building that model, Paul urged us to live by the following motto, "Do your best, and it must be first class."

" WHEN YOU DO SOMETHING IN THE NAME OF GOD , DO YOUR BEST, AND IT MUST BE FIRST CLASS"

This event will only be possible with the support and cooperation of many people. You too can make a contribution to the festival / fair by volunteering your resources or by making financial contribution. Even small contributions are helpful. In addition, you can assist us by publicizing the event. Working people-to-people, tell your family, friends and colleagues at work about the Paul Rusch Festival - Mt. Yatsu County Fair and our need for support. Finally, we urge you and your friends to share in this process and to attend the festivities in honor of Paul Rusch.
